MORE "WANTS"

O'CLOCK

ASYLUM KEEPERS ACCUSED.

SUSPICIOUS DEATH OF AN INSANE PATIENT ON WARD'S ISLAND.

Julius Willis Brought Home Dead Covered with Bruises-His Wife Believes He Was Brutally Beaten and Demands an Investigation-Coroner Levy Stops the Funeral and Orders a Post-Mortem.

Coroner Levy was notified this morning of a mysterious death in the City Asylum for the Insane on Ward's Island, which it is claimed is the result of foul play by the

The case was reported by Lawyer W. H. O'Dwyer, of 261 Broadway, who brought the following letter from his client, Mrs. Elizabeth Willis, of 1212 First avenue :

To the Coroner.

DWAR SIR: My husband, Julius Willis, was brought home from the Insane Asylum on Ward's Island last Friday, and I believe that his death was caused by the brutal treatment of the keepers, and I was and demand that a post-morrem examination be made so that I may know the cause of his death before he is buried.

ELIZABETH WILLIS. Lawyer O'Dwyer said there many bruises on the man's body which bore out the wife's suspicions, and urged that a rigid investigation be made.

The funeral was fixed for 1 o'clock this afternoon and Undertaker Shafer was already ternoon and Undertaker Shafer was already at the house.

Coroner Levy, however, issued an order stopping the funeral, and said he would begin the investigation without delay.
Deputy Coroner Jenkins will make an autopsy this afternoon.
Coroner Levy is informed that some time sign Willis was attacked with the persecution mania and was taken to the Middletown Insane Asylum, but was subsequently removed to the Amityville asylum. There a complaint was made against him and he was removed to his home.
While walking in the street three months was made against him and he was removed to his home.

While walking in the street three months age he began to act strangely, and a citizen had him arrested.

He was sent to Bellevue Hospital, where he was pronounced insane, and was removed to the Ward's Island Asylum.

Mrs. Willis visited her husband at the institution last Tuesday, when he was apparently in good health. He complained to her of the brutal treatment he received at the hands of the attendants and exhibited to her several bruises. She returned to her home very much broken down.

On Saturday morning Mrs. Willis received a letter from the authorities of the Ward's Island Asylum stating that her husband had died at the institution on Friday.

An undertaker was immediately employed, and he went to the Morgue and procured the body. He learned that it was about to be buried in Potter's Field.

The body was removed to his late home.

buried in Potter's Field.

The body was removed to his late home, where an investigation showed that it was covered with bruises. On the side of the face was a deep gash.

Counsellor O'Dwyer has requested that Doctors W. A. Hanes and P. H. Cremini, the family physicians, be allowed to assist at the autors.

autopsy.

Willis was forty-nine years of age. He had no children. He at one time kept a restaurant on Second avenue, but latterly drove horse-cars.

The asylum death certificate gives the cause of death as mania.

Coroner Levy said to a reporter that three people had called on him last week who stated that members of their respective families or friends were being ill treated at the lies or friends were being ill treated at the Ward's Island Asylum.

FOUND WOUNDED IN A CELLAR.

A Greenpoint Man in a Chrystie Street Cellar -Is He a Would-Be Suicide?

John Hanrahan, a carpenter, twenty-eight years old, unmarried, of 292 Manhattan avenue, Greenpoint, was found this morning in the basement of Pat Hickey's saloon, corner Canal and Chrystie streets, suffering with two pistol-shot wounds, which he is supposed to have inflicted with a 32-calibre revolver, to have inflicted with a 32-calibre revolver.

The balls penetrated his right breast. He was discovered by Richard Higgins, of 117 Forsyth street, who told Policeman Patrick Breen, of the Eldridge street station, who summoned an ambulance from Gouverneur Hospital.

Hanashan was conscions, but would say nothing. He is in a critical condition and may die before night.

He is well known in the vicinity where he lives, How, when or why he went into the basement where he was found has not yet been explained.

His brother, who lives at 347 Manhattan avenue, Greenpoint, called on him at the hosbeen explained.

His brother, who lives at 347 Manhattan avenue, Greenpoint, called on him at the hospital, but got no information from him.

The people near Hickey's saloon professed to know nothing about Hanrahan. The Coroner will investigate the case.

Annie Murphy's Betrayer Arrives. Fiel W. Sweezy, the young law clerk who is accused of complicity with Dr. G. V. Rockwell in procuring an abortion on Annie L. Murphy, of 511 East One Hundred and Nineteenth atreet, arrived from Marion, Ind., in custody of a sheriff this morning, having consented to come to New York without a requisition.

He was fully identified by the girl as the man who betrayed her under the name of tyrus Watson, and at Harlem Police Court he was committed without ball to await a certificate as to the girl's condition.

Did the Owner Commit Sufeide? The folling articles, supposed to have belonged to some person who was drowned or committed suicide, were found at the foot of West Forty-third street and brought to the Twenty-second Precinct station-house this morning: Black derby hat, two white shirts, a turn-down collar, polks dot necktie, pair of suspenders, handkerenief, Prince Albert coat, black diagonal vest and a pair of striped brown pants. In the pockets were found a bunch of keys, with a brass tag attached numbered 38, and $8.63 in money.

Congressman Ford's Sister Killed.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.1 DETROIT, July 30. -A sister of Congressman M. H. Ford, who is now investigating immigration methods in New York, was accidentally killed by an overdose of chloroform at her home last night.

An extensive farm on the property of W. C. Baker, at Jamaica. L. L. was totally destroyed by fire last night with its contents.

The loss is estimated at $2,500. The fire is supposed to be of an incendiary origin.

Gen. Sheridan's Condition. NEW BEDFORD, July 30 .- Gen. Sheridan's cond One Man Mortally Injured and the Captain

The tugboat Mary Loughlin was lying at the dock at Elm Park, S. I., at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, when Capt. Reynolds hailed passing rowboat and asked to be taken over Elizabethport.

Captain saw that it contained Jack Redmond. a notorious Port-Richmond tough, and "Shaker" Manley, Johnny Donovan and another member of the gang, not pleasant companions for a voyage on a dark night.

He therefore informed them that he did not want their services and warned them off.
Redmond stopped to parley, and finally becoming abusive jumped on board the tug and called upon his friends to assist him in laying the captain out. The latter received the pirates with a volley of brickbats, which were the first things that he and the engineer could by bands on.

ive through the day.

Meanwhile Inspector Cobb, of the Staten Island police, with a reserve squad of five officers, went down to Elm Park to arrest the ficers, went down to Elm Park to arrest the captain of the tug.

At first he refused to allow the officers to come on board, threatening them with violence if they attempted it. It was not until the door of the cabin was broken in that the captain surrendered. He and his four men were taken before Redmond, who identified the captain as the one who had thrown the brick which hit him.

He was, therefore, held and the others discharged from custody. At a preliminary hearing before Justice Hulsebus it was decleded to postpone the examination until the probable result of Redmond's injuries could be ascerta'ned.

This morning his condition was reported to be very low and there was little hope of his recovery held forth by the surgeon at the hospital. Meanwhile the Captain is locked up at the police station at West New Brighton

CASH WAS IN A FRENZY.

The Violence of a Man Recovering from Long Debauch.

this morning, and, seizing their little girl, threatened to throw her out of the fourthstory window to the yard and dash out its off to arrest Cash.

Mrs. Cash's brother, who was visiting her at 427 East Houston street at the time, hastened to the Union Market police station, and Policemen Fraler and Schneider hurried off to arrest Cash.

Fraier knocked at the door, swinging his club carelessly but threateningly, when Cash pulled it open and faced the policeman with a piece of lead pipe over two feet long and five inches in diameter. Without a word he let it descend with crashing force across Fraier's face, sending the blood in every direction. At the same time he seized the policeman's club. oliceman's club.

policeman's club.

A lively struggle for possession of the billy ensued, during which Cash bit the policeman a sharp blow with the lead pipe across his hands. Fraler grasped him by the throat and choked him until he released his hold of the club and when Cash made a third assault with the pipe, she club descended upon his head with terrific force and Cash fell in a heap on the floor, blood from his cut head spattering the walls.

Two additional policemen had been summoned when the affray was at its height. Cash struggled, kicked and hit at the officers and it required the combined strength of the quartet of blue coats to carry him to the assault.

Cash is a dangerous customer when recovering from a debauch, and his friends give him a wide berth. Four days ago he stopped drinking because he felt the premontory symptoms of delirium tremens, and his assault upon the life of his wife and child this morning was as sudden as it was unprovoked. Mrs. Cash declares that he never struck her before, and she is sure that

Cash was born in Williamsburg thirty-three years ago and is a brass finisher by trade. He has served two terms for burglary, of five years and eighteen months respectrobed sisters present and the immediate friends of the dead one.

Sister Rose Leo, one of the three secretaries o

A choir of twelve sisters, who had been intimate companions of the deceased, chanted a requiem for the dead during the mass.

Sister Rose Leo, surname Markey, was thirty years old, and had been in the order for thirteen

May Work, but Not for McShirley. Mary Ann Argue, the young Irish girl who arsystem, it is supposed, for a family in New Jersey named McShirley, will not be returned to the othe stide.

She is able and willing to work, and Secretary McCool, of the Mission of Our Lady of the Rosary, will see that she gets a suitable place with proper compensation. She will not be permitted to work for the McShirley's, however.

Mrs. Cleveland's Doings at Marion. MARION, Mass. July 80. - Mrs. Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. Gilden were driven to the old town

A Builders' Strike Threatened.

A strike of union workmen is threatened to-day on nine buildings at One Hundred and Fourteenth street, between Second and Third avenues, be cause non-union painters are employed at less than

One Year of High License in Pennsylvania [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
PITTSBURG, July 30. —Statistics from all counties n Pennsylvania show that in one year's operation of the High License law the number of licenses were reduced from 14, 555 to 7, 794, and the revenue increased from $974,879 to $1, 555, 963.

DID HE SLAY LAVARINO?

M'CARTHY NOW CLAIMS THAT HE IS AN INNOCENT MAN.

John Luby, a Burgiar Friend of His, He Says, Gave the Fatal Blow, and Luby Confessed It on H's Dying Bed-Me-Carthy's Own Contession Made to Shield Luby-The Police Investigating.

Who killed Pasquale Lavarino, the Italian. who met his death from a stab wound Dec. 26, 1881, is a question which Gov. Hill will probably be called upon to decide. It promises to be quite as difficult of solution as that great psychological question, " The Lady or the Tiger?" Already a jury of twelve men have said i was John J. McCarthy who began the service of a term of twelve and one-half years' sentence for manslaughter in the first degree, Nov. 25, 1885.

John Luby, a burglar, who died in Auburn Prison iu the fall of 1885, confessed on his death bed that he killed Lavarino, and Mc. Carthy now writes to his wife Agnes, who resides in East One Hundred and Twelfth street, from his cell in Clinton Prison that Luby told the truth, that Luby was his friend and kitled the man Lavazino was his friend and killed the man Lavasino in defense of McCarthy's life, and he (McCarthy) could do no less than return the favor by putting his life in peril to shield such a friend.

But McCarthy had made a confession, a "third degree" statement to Inspector Byrnes. The jury certainly thought it a confession, but in the light of subsequent events it can easily be seen how they may have been mistaken.

The crime was committed in 1881 and McCarthy was not arrested until Sept. 19, 1885.

The crime was committed in 1881 and Mc-Carthy was not arrested until Sept. 19, 1885. He had, on one of his sprees, which were of frequent occurrence, told a friend that he knew all about the killing of Lavarnio, which up to that time had remained a mystery. The friend "peached." McCarthy was arrested. The confession followed.

McCarthy told the Inspector that he had a quarrel with three Italians in front of 804 Mott street, and was worsted. He went to Fanning's grocery further down the street, procured a big cheese knife and returned to the fray, cutting right and left. He said that he stabbed the man who hit him before.

said that he stabled the man who hit him before.

This was the substance of McCarthy's confession. He did not say that he stabbed Lavarino, and, in fact, the post-mortem examination showed the death wound to have been inflicted by a smaller instrument than the cheese knife.

Lavarinio's two companions were stabbed, and it might have been one of these whom Lavarinio's two companions were stabbed, and it might have been one of these whom McCarthy said he had knifed.

The dying statement of Luby was to the effect that he saw McCarthy being worsted in the fight and rushed in upin Lavarino as he was about to stab McCarthy with his dirk.

He wrenched the knife away from the Italian and inflicted the fatal wound.

There were a number of winesses to the affray, all young men, friends of both McCarthy and Luby, but none of them came forward to testify, the only witnesses being the two Italians who survived the affray and an Italian bootblack named Rocco, who was certain that the man who did the cutting was an Italian.

This statement again confuses the person who is seeking the true solution of this who is seeking the true solution of this who is seeking the true solution of this strange story.

Luby was light complexioned, while Mc-Carthy was rather dark and would be more liable to be mistaken for a son of sunny Italy than Luby. This would seem to discredit Luby's death-bed confession, but he is supported by the statements of Frank Barrett, of SIS Fast Fourteenth street who died last 318 East Fourteenth street, who died las week.

Barrett, who was one of the witnesses of the fight, said before his death, that Luby did the killing and not McCarthy. His brother, James Barrett, who is also dead, is said to have made similar statements, and said to have made similar statements, and there are reported to be still other eye-witnesses of the affray, who have remained quiet all these years, but will now swear that Luby and not McCarthy was the murderer.

Honor among rogues that will go to the extent of a willingness on the part of one to sacrifice his life for another is seldom witnessed, and it is difficult to believe that McCarthy would do it.

Inspector Byrnes is investigating the story to ascertain if McCarthy is now telling the truth.

ruth.

Is McCarthy such a man as would sacrifice

Is McCarthy such a man as would sacrifice his life for a friend?

THE EYENING WORLD reporter asked this question of James McGee, who keeps the saloon at Houston and Mott streets.

"I think he would," was his answer. "He was just such a fellow. He was a quiet sort of fellow, except when drunk, and very determined. I think he'd stand by a friend to death."

Names are Urged.

This is said this morning to be Mayor Hewitt's slate for Aqueduct Commissioners : Assistant Corporation Counsel Francis M. Scott, ex-Alderman James T. Van Rensselaer, Gen. Westervelt, son of ex-Mayor Westervelt, and westervelt, son of ex-Mayor Westervelt, and ex-Judge Van Voorst, of the Supreme Court. The Mayor has been overrun with visitors this morning. Senstor James F. Pierce, of Kings County, called and remained more than an hour discussing aqueduct matters with His Honor.

The Mayor expressed his satisfaction with Senator Fassett's letter. Gen. Newton also called and had a long talk with Senator Pierce and the Mayor.

There seems to be a well-settled opinion about the City Hall that Mayor Hewitt will announce his appointments within a day or announce his appointments within a day or two and that he will not reappoint any of the two and that he will not reappoint any of the old Commissioners.

A delegation of workingmen, representing the carpenters, bricklayers, plasterers, stone-cutters, plumbers, framers and joiners, also called on the Mayor to urge the appointment of William Kleim as an Aqueduct Commissioner, Charles Kensill acted as chairman. Mayor Hewitt agreed to meet Mr. Kleim and the Committe again this afternoon, Mr. Kleim is a Democrat.

Col. Jostah Hill, Assistant General Manager the Vandalia Line, and his two daughters arrived from the West this morning and registered at the Grand Central. Col. Hill is quite ill, and is on his way North in search of health.

The Little Seed. A little seed lay in the carter's path; A little shoot bowed in the strong wind's wrath; A little shrub grew, by its roots held fast; Then a stout tree braved all the winter's blast. A little cough started—'twas only light; A little chill salvered the hours of night; A little pain came and began to grow, Then consumption laid all his brave strength low.

He wise in time. Check the little cough, care the little chill, dispel the little hath, ere the little aliment becomes the strong, unconquerable giant of disease. Dr. Pierce's Goldbin Medical Discovery, taken in time, is a remedy for these lils.

OPEN STUYVESANT PARK.

The Aldermen Will Take a Hand at Their Meeting To-Morrow.

sent a resolution requesting the Park Com gates of Stuyvesant Pork until 10 o'clock every evening. There is no doubt of the Mayor Hewitt said to an Evenino World reporter:

'It would not be proper for me to say in advance what action I will take should the Aldermen adopt the resolution.

'I have not investigated the matter. I have heard that the question of opening the gates of Stuyvesant Park was being agitated. I think, however, that the Park Commission is the proper body to decide the question.

'I would not like to tell them what they should do. Let them decide. After the advocates of the opening of the gates have exhausted their energies there, it would be time enough to come to me. I would not wish to interfere with their prerogatives. I would probably consult them if the Aldermen should adopt the resolution.'

The committee appointed by the Stuyvesant Hall meeting of citizens and property owners of the Sixteenth District will call on the Park Commissioners to-morrow.

owners of the Sixteenth District will call of the Park Commissioners to-morrow.

The Gas Commissioners will meet in a few days, and the question of lighting up Stuy-vesant Park will probably come up for ac-tion.

A SAD BLOW FOR KEENAN.

Judge Van Hoesen Denles Him a Share is of the profits of the aqueduct contracts held by Clark.

His application for a receiver to assume charge of the contracts and for an injunction restraining Clark from interfering has been denied by Judge Van Hoesen, of the Supreme Court.

denied by Judge Van Hoesen, of the Supreme Court.

In a lengthy opinion the Judge says that there is no room for doubt that Keenan and Clark became equal partners when they executed the agreement in March, 1884, but the later agreement by which Keenan was compelled to moderate his demands was fatal to his claim to be Clark's partner in the aqueduct courracts of O'Brien & Clark.

ON THE DIAMOND FIELD.

Standing of the Clubs This Morning.

Slattery will join the team in Boston on Thurs Can Cincinnati squeeze a game from Brooklyn

Ed Crave will pitch in one of the games against Washington. Whitney is playing as good ball as any third baseman in the League.

De Wolf Hopper now regards himself as a full-fledged mascot. He has seen the Glants win.

Hardle Richardson's sprained ankle is so much improved that he expects to play ball within a month's time.

Wanted by grand-stand girls: To know why Mickey Welch didn't show up Baturday in his "Nadly" contume.

"There is not a ball ground in the country kept in better condition than the Athletic Grounds."— Philadelphia Press. What's the matter with De-

Officer Cusick, of the Seventh Precinct, Greenpoint, caught Frank Hessier, of 238 Central avenue, in the act of casting loose the Dina V., the property of August Corneil, of 84 Commercia street, at 5 o'clock this morning. The boat was moored at the foot of Clay street. Hessier was arrested, arraigned before Justice Naener and held for examination.

The Closing Quetations

| Central Pacific                          | 1165  | 1104   | 115%  | 87%   | ı  |
|--|-------|--------|-------|-------|----|
|  | 1112  | 112 %  | 1105  | 1101  | В  |
| Chicago, Milwauses & St. P.              | 721   | 731    | 7134  | 155C  | п  |
| Chie, Mil, & st. Paul pfd                | 1090  | 110    | 108   | 110   | ľ  |
| Chie. Rock Island & Pac                  | 107   | 104    | 107   | 107%  |    |
| Cot. & Hocking Valley                    | 24    | 24%    | 24    | 046   | П  |
| Col. & Hocking Coal                      | 22%   | 2.32   | 994   | 9902  | ь  |
| Consolidated Gas                         | 76    | 76%    | 7697  | 760   | ľ  |
| Del . Lack. & Western                    | 134)  | 185    | 18834 | 135   |    |
| Delaware & Hudson                        | 114   | 114%   | 114   | 114%  | 1  |
| Rest Tenn., Va. & Ga. lat pfd.           | 70    | 70     | 70    | 70    | L. |
| E. Tenn., va. & Ga. 24 pfd               | 1694  | 20%    | 2536  | 20.56 | 18 |
| Ft. Worth & Denver City                  | 27.0  | 27%    | 3774  | 277   | h  |
|  | 121   | 121    | 121   | 121   | r. |
| Louisville & Nashville                   | 61195 | 6116   | 6014  | 61%   | è  |
| Lake Shore Western, pfd                  | 92N   | 2.0    | 9214  | 69    | 1  |
| Lake aria & Western, pro                 | 8736  | 4614   | 82    | 4636  | L  |
| Michigan Central                         | 2276  | 755    | 200   | 78%   | 8  |
| Mobile & Ohio                            | 16    | 10     | 10    | 10    | 13 |
| Mo., Eausas & Texas                      | 15%   | 1556   | 1414  | 15    | Г  |
| Nanh., Chat, & St L                      | NO LZ | 85     | 8334  | 85    | ı  |
| New Jersey Central                       | 8332  | 83%    | 83 12 | 8314  | ŀ  |
| N. V. & New England,                     | 7237  | 4.5    | 43    | 48    | П  |
| N. I., Lake Brie & West                  | 27    | 27%    | 26%   | 9734  |    |
| N. Y., L. E. & Western ofd               | 6136  | 6136   | 6134  | 6134  | ١. |
| N. Y., Susq. & West.                     | . 9   | 9      | 914   | 9     | 9  |
| N. Y., Susq. & West, pfd                 | 31%   | 31%    | 81%   | 81%   | ď  |
| Nurfolk & Western ptd                    | 2534  | 60%    | BULL  | 8074  | 13 |
| Northern Pacific ofd                     | 004   | 265    | 255   | 26%   | Г  |
| Ohio & Mississippi                       | 2236  | 2013   | 90174 | 9976  | ı  |
| Ore. Railway & Navigation                | 00    | 55.0   | 557*  | 5555  |    |
| Ore, Transcontinental                    | 25    | 110    | 24%   | 500   | ı  |
| Pacitic Mail                             | 85%   | 85.92  | 250   | 850   | ı  |
| Philadelphia & Heading                   | 6414  | 64%    | 6334  | 64 %  |    |
| Peorta, Decatur & Evan                   | 215   | 2152   | 21%   | 2112  | ı  |
|  | 163   | 1631   | 163   | 163 × | l. |
| Rich. & West Point Ter                   | 25 1  | 2514   | 26    | 25%   | 1  |
| Rich, & West Polut Ter. pfd.             | 737*  | 7// 14 | 75%   | 73%   | k  |
| St. Paul & Omaha                         | . 100 | 367    | 38    | 36%   |    |
|  | 105%  | 100 14 | 10034 | 100%  | 1  |
| St. Lone & San Fran. pfdTexas Pacine | 2274  | 42.3   | 15.05 | 7.274 | 1  |
| Union Pacific                            | AH.   | 5.C    | 22.3  | 2376  | 1  |
| United States Express                    | Te    | 76     | 7.6   | -155A | ı  |
| Wabash, St. L. & Pacific ofd             | 25 W  | 2614   | 2014  | 2514  | 1  |

New York Markets.

Wheat.—The market opened strong and active, December options opened Nyc. above Saturday's closing prices at 93%. Stronger cables had a corresponding effect on the local market, and soon after the opening wheat was quoted at 96%. Corron.—Futures opened quiet but steady. Aug. wa quoted 5 noths up at 11.02. Other months unchanged. Sept., 9.76; Oct., 8.53; March, 8.6; April, 9.70; May, 49; Feb., 9.33; March, 8.6; April, 9.70; May, 4.79; June, 8.85. Liverpool firm but quiet.

Coyres.—At the opening this morning prices had declined 10 points from Saturday's closing quotations. July was quoted at 11c.; Aug., 16.50; Sept., 9.25; Oct. and Nov., 9.50; Dec., 9.60; Jan., 9.60; Feb., 9.70; March and April, 9.50; May and June, 9.85. Marches dell. Hamberg and Havre cables quiet.

Vacation Sale of Outing Clothing

PAT FARLEY IN A BAD FIX.

THE EX-ALDERMAN CHARGED WITH COM-MITTING AN OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT.

Charles Reggenberg, the Victim, Swears Out a Criminal Warrant for Farley's Arrest. and Mays He Will Bring Civil Action Also-The Story of Truck-Driver Gilroy, Who Saw the Whole Affair.

The Eldridge street police are in a state of mind because they are accused of being in collusion with ex-Boodle Alderman Pat Farley, and of protecting him from the conse quences of his misdeeds.

The accusation has its origin in the facthat the police failed to arrest the ex-Alderman for a brutal assault which he is said to have committed upon a young man in his saloon, at the Bowery and Grand street, late last Saturday night.

The victim was Charles Reggenberg, truck driver, who lived at 164 Leonard street. The story goes that Reggenberg was found by Farley asleep in one of the closets of the saloon downstairs, and that thereupon, without any provocation, the ex-Alderman fell upon his sleeping victim and beat him terribly about the head with some sharp instrument and then caused him to be thrown ou upon the sidewalk, where he was found in an unconscious condition by Policeman Ryas Reggenberg was in such a dazed condition from the beating he had received that he was able to give no account of the assault His head was bleeding terribly from the gap-ing wounds in the scalp, and it was feared that his skull had been fractured. When place had "fired out" a drunken man a short time previous, but that no one had been as-saulted there.

On these statements and the fact that no complainant appeared. Sergt. Creed says that the police to do decided nothing more in the matter.

It appears to be much more serious, however, for ex-Alderman Farley than he at first imagined, for Reggenberger is determined to have vengeance for the beating which he received imagined, for Reggenberger is determined to have vengeance for the beating which he received.

While he was lying suffering at his home yesterday he was visited by the witness, who first notified the police of the outrage, who offered to do anything in his power to help him if he desired to make a complaint against Farley. He is Michael J. Gilroy, a truck driver of the American News Company.

"The assault was the most brutal outrage I ever witnessed." said Mr. Gilroy to an Evening World was the most brutal outrage I ever witnessed." said Mr. Gilroy to an Evening World was the most brutal outrage I as a said to said. I want into the salcon at about 11.30 on Saturday night and just as I got in I saw Farley going down the stairs. He was in his shirt sleeves and had a plug hat on. I followed him down and saw him go straight to the closet where Reggenberg was asleep.

"Come, get out of this, he said.
"Reggenberg did not appear to hear him. The next thing I heard was 'whack! whack! bang! and Reggenberg rolled out on the floor with a groan, the blood spurting from the back of his head. Farley had something in his hand that looked like a 'blackjack.' I saw him put it in his pocket.

"I ran upstairs and went to the station to make a complaint. Before I went I heard Farley tell his barkeeper to go downstairs Heggenberg was able to go to the Tombs this morning and swear out a warrant against the ex-Alderman before Judge Kilbreth. He took Gilroy with him, who repeated the story of the assault, and who intimated in addition that he had been approached by friends of the ex-boodler for the purpose of inducing him to say nothing about the matter. He was the only witness of the assault.

Reggenberg has consulted a lawyer about the case, and has determined to bring a civil action for $10.000 damages against Farley, no matter what the result of the criminal proceeding may be.

ceeding may be.

He is a young man of respectable family and his mother owns considerable property in the Sixth Ward.

YONKERS, July 30. - Here are the entries Yonkers for Tuesday, July 31: First Race. -For beaten horses; six and one-half fur longs.

PEPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I

(BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.) COPENHAGEN, July 30 .- The Danish squad ron met the German fleet at 9 o'clock this morning King Christian and the Crown Prince went on board the Hohenzollern and were received with a hearty greeting by the Emperor.

The King gave the Kaiser and Prince Henry most cordial welcome to Denmark. The Hohenzollern then put straight for this city and all landed at 11.30. The entire population was out upon the cheering. The Imperial and Royal Majesties and Highnesses then proceeded through immens crowds lining the streets to the palace.

quays and housetops and there was great

Congratulations from the Pope. (BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.)
ROME, July 30.—The Pope has sent a telegram of congratulation to Emperor William on his occasion of the birth of the fifth son, and has received one in response from the Emperor thanking him for this new testimonial of his friendship.

To Search for Explorer Stanley. INT CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.)
LONDON, July 30.—The mail steamer from he Congo brings news from Major Barttelot to April 15. The Major had heard nothing of Stanley, but was preparing to leave the Zambuya camp to go in search of him.

MAYOR GLEASON NOT ON TRIAL.

His Case Adjourned by Previous Agreement Until Thursday, Aug. 2. trial of Mayor Patrick S. Gleason. whom Austin Corbin, of the Long Island Railroad, intends to fight in Justice Cullen's Court, did not come up this morning, an adjournment to Thursday having been agreed upon.

Mayor Gleason has summoned the railroad officials to appear before him to-morrow to show cause why other obstructions should not be removed The argument on the injunction restrain-ing the Mayor from removing more property is going on before Judge Cullen in Brooklyn to-day.

NITRO-GLYCERINE AND TRAMPS.

an Explosion in Ohio Where Several Were Probably Killed. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORL

LIMA, O., July 80.—The Rock Nitro Glycerine Company's factory, near this city, was set on fire about noon yesterday and was set of the about noor yesterday and soon after exploded with great force. The building was reduced to splinters and pieces of flesh were found some distance away. It is supposed several tramps were killed, as a number of them were seen around there a few minutes before the explosion.

49 IS QUIET TO-DAY.

its Traubles Will Come to Justice Var Brunt's Hearing To-Morrow.

All is quiet at Pythagoras Hall to-day. The contending factions of No. 49 will present their claims before Judge Van Brunt in Supreme Court Chambers to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

The decision of the Court is expected to settle the whole controversy, and all the facts are likely to be brought out which will define the exact status of the factions in the matter

Wants to Know Who Wrote It. Mayor Hewitt was asked this morning as to the truth of the statements published in the Tribune over the signature "One Who Knows," charging the Mayor with practically forcing the Governor into recommending Aqueduct legislation at the extra session of the Legislature.

"When the Tribune gives me the name of its informant I shall be ready to talk to nim," said Mr. Hewitt, "but neither the Tribune nor the public can expect me to answer anonymous com-

Disembowelled by a Fall. INPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, 1

NASHUA, N. H., July 30. - Peter Mooney was terribly injured this morning at Overseer Johnson's room in the Nashua Manufacturing Companys Mill. He was pulling down a curtain, when he fell on the sharp edge of the tin box on which he was standing. He struck on the abdomen and the sharp edge cut through, letting out his bowels. He cannot recover.

Local Rain, Then Fair. WARRINGTON, July 30, -Weather indications For Connecticut and Fair, preceded by local rains on the coast; sightly warmer, fol owed Tuesday by starariable winds. tionary temperature

The Weather To-Day. Indicated by Blakely's tele-thormometer: 1888. 67 67 1887. 19 9 A. M..... 1884

O.CTOCK EXTRA

PRICE ONE CENT.

COUNT FOR YOURSELF AND PROVE IT.

FREE TICKETS TO SLAVERY

THE CONTINUED STORY OF ABUSED AND DECEIVED ITALIAN LABORERS.

Tempt the Warm-Blooded Foreigners to Colder Shores-Usury in the Contracts for the Repayment of the Passage Money

-How the Agents Work Abroad. Just as the Congressional Committee, which is unearthing a host of flagrant abuses of the emigrant system, whereby a flood of paupers and criminals is being poured into this country from Europe, was about resuming its inquiry at the We tminster Hotel this morn-

It announced the sudden death by accidental possoning of Mr. Ford's only sister, Miss Esther Ford, at Lansing, Mich.
The fatality occurred on Saturday, and Mr.
Ford was wired at Washington, but the despatch was not opened till to-day, when he was notified.

was notified.

The committee retired to an upper room and held a consultation, finally deciding to go on with the work with Congressman Oates him and for himself. Saricini keeps a store in Italy.

He said he had instructions from Beradini to send him plenty of men, but Beradini's name does not appear in the contract.

Beradini lives at 34 Mulberry street, and d'Aloe has seen him, but he has given him no work. Not a day since his arrival.

Beradini has kept him waiting for wors, but has not fed nor sheltered him.

Other men who had $3 or $4 were sent to work. Beradini saying that that money was for the bosses. A Washington street benevolent society gives d'Aloe one meal each day, and another society gives him a lodging ticket every night.

ticket every night.
"Would you like to go to work?" asked Mr. Oates.
"That's what I came for," exclaimed the he came to America for $1.00 a day and he wouldn't work for less, was the substance of what he said.

Ten of the thirteen neighbors who came on together on this contract are still living on charity here and have had no work. Three of them were taken away to Philadelphia to work.

Work.

These three agreed to pay $8 each. Of this $5 was to go to the bosses and $3 for steamer fare. This is to be taken from the first money earned.

Other men were selected at the same time

By his contract with Saricini Nicola was to pay the 250 francs by the end of August, and Saricini told him he could earn it in a month. Now Saricini can sue him and attach hi "winery." Then his family will be desti-

Of the 200 sent over by Saricini, only four ever returned to Italy and none of the others have sent for their wives and families.

Barns Burned at New Canana.

NORWALK. CORD., July 30.—Stephen B. Hoyt's barns at New Canan were burned yesterday. Lose, $18,000; insurance, $15,000.

Are clean and sweet and a most pleasing a

ORIGINAL SPORTING CARTOON. See EVENING WORLD'S Sporting Extras. PRICE ONE CENT.

NIGHT FIGHT ON A TUGBOAT.

Locked Up.

"It'll cost you 50 cents, boss," said a voice from the rowboat. As it came alongside the

Patrick Cash, an ex-convict, beat his wife station house.

An ambulance surgeon was called, who decided that the scalp wound was a dangerous one and Cash was removed to Bellevue Hospital, a prisoner, under a charge of felonious the New York Foundling Asylum, at Sixty-eighth street and Third auenue, who died of consumption on Friday last, was buried in Calvary Cemetery this morning. The funeral took place at 10 A. M At 9 o'clock a high mass for the dead was cele brated by the Rev. Father Lille, pastor of the Church of St. Vinceut de Ferrer, assisted by Father Curran, of the same church, in the Anylum Chapel. There were about one hundred and fifty black-robed sisters present and the immediate friends of

At to-morrow's meeting of the Board of Aldermen Alderman Joseph Murray will premissioners to order the keeping open of the gates of Stuyesant Pork until 10 o'clock every evening. There is no doubt of the adoption of the resolution.

Alderman Divver said to-day: "Certainly I will speak and vote in favor of the opening of the gates of Stuyesant Park. I do not think there will be a vote against it. It is an outrage to keep the poor people of the district out of that park after sunset."

Mayor Hewitt said to an EVENING WORLD reporter.

Clark's Aqueduct Contracts.

AROUND THE BASER. Washington to-day.

The Giants will win four games this week. Chalk I up.—Press. Make it six 7

Query: If his fragile freehness, the mascot, were clothed in "Nadly" tights could be, resembling a shadow, cast one?

and taken to the Eldridge street station.

that his skull had been fractured. When the ambulance surgeon had dressed the wound, Reggenberg declined to make any complaint, for some inexplicable reason, although an unknown friend, who had witnessed the assault, had been to the station meanwhile and had told the police all about the occurrence, accusing ex-Alderman Farley of the assault. He had gone away, however, without giving his name.

It was said that Farley, who made his appearance shortly after at the station-house, had been arrested on this complaint, but the police say that this is not so. He came there, they silege, of his own accord because he had heard that some one had accused him of assaulting a man in his own saloon and he assaulting a man in his own saloon and he wished to deny it. He declared that the barkeeper in his make a complaint. Before I went I heard Farley tell his barkeeper to go downstairs and get the man out of the place. The officer brought Reggenberg in while I was at the station. He was hardly conscious then and was an awful sight to behold,

"While he was in the back room getting his head sewed up Farley came in with an officer, and I thought he had been arrested. He asked to see the man who said he had hit Reggenberg and I stepped out in front of him. nake a complaint. Before I went I heard nim.

"He called me an 'infamous liar,' but he couldn't look me in the eye and say he didn't do it, for I saw him strike the man as plainly as I see you now."

Reggenberg was able to go to the Tomb

Fatally Wounded in a Brawl. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. ]
AYER, Mass., July 30. — During a drunken braw in Pepperell yesterday afternoon Ed Humphrey fired three shots at and probably fatally wounded Tom Tierney.

Purse Barney H

ing a despatch from Washington was placed in the hands of Congressman Melbourne H.

Ford, the Chairman of the committee.

and held a consultation, finally deciding to go on with the work with Congressman Ostes in the chair.

The committee decided to hear witnesses to-day and to-morrow, when they will probably adjourn till next Monday.

Mr. Ford leaves for Lansing to-night.

The first witness of to-day was Nicola d'Aloe, another wistful, hollow-eved Italian, who said he was fifty-four years old and arrived in America on the steamer Cheribon, a tramp, from Naples in June.

He was a farm hand in Italy and earned from 10 to 15 cents a day and his meals. He owned a little vineyard near Naples, worth from 400 to 500 france, or $75 or $100.

Nicola, however, had no money when he left Italy. He came over free of passage, a man having come from Parma who said his name was Nicola Saricini. Thirteen men from Parma came with d'Aloe free of charge, and there were $50 Italians on the steamer.

Each of the thirteen contracted in writing with witnesses to pay 250 francs each out of their wages after they got to America.

D'Aloe's wife signed the contract with her husband and Saricini has the paper. The witness left his wife and four children in Italy. He brought a letter to M. Berardini, 21 Mulberry street.

His family lived comfortably in Italy, each member working. It required four francs a day to maintain his family, and about 60 cents a day exclusive of clothing.

Saricini told him to take no money to America, and that when he racehed New York he would be set at work immediately by the man to whom the letter was addressed.

Sericini told him be would earn $1.50 a day and that thus he would be making money for him and for himself. Saricini keeps a store in Italy.

He said he had instructions from Beradini.

Italian, spreading his hands. But he shrugged his shoulders and wanted to know what he would do with it, with his family waiting in Europe, when Mr. Oates asked if he would work for less than $1.50 a day. He would not work for less than $1.50, he said, obstinately.

he would work for less than $1.50 a day. He would not work for less than $1.50, he said, obstinately.

Mr. Oates asked how it was that when he worked for 10 or 15 cents a day in Italy, and yet he would not work for less than $1.50 here. To this Nicola returned that at home he could pick up a few grains or potatoes. That he could not here was expressed with another shrig of his shoulders.

To another question Nicola said that had he met with success here he intended to become a citizen, bringing his family over and grow up with the country. Not upon any consideration would he have come had he known that there was no work. He was sat isfied at home. Now he was starving.

For four days after his arrival Nicola was kept in a room in Beradini's house, and then he was turned loose. Oh, yes, he intends to pay the 250 francs according to his contract. He did not know but Saricini had already attached his little vineyard. He knew that Saricini had not fulfilled his contract, but there was no hope for him as he could not get back to Italy to defend his property.

"It required two francs to keep your family," said Congressman Guenther: "if I gave you two francs a day and your board and clothing would you work for me?"

The old man fairly shrieked a negation and jabbered away excitedly to the interpreter.

He came to America for $1.50 a day and

He came to America for $1.50 a day and on the same terms.

Vincenzo Tella was the name of the Philadelphia man who took the $8 from each of the men, and the gang numbered twenty-ate.

Saricini has sent during the last four years, 200 men to America in the manner described by Nicola, and some of them have repaid him the 250 francs. All of those who came over last year have paid up. There were thirty of

Fragrant Vanity Pair Cigarettes

Barnburners at Work.

were the first things that he and the engineer could lay hands on.

One of the bricks struck Redmond on the head, knocking him senseless, and the remainder of his gang were repulsed without much difficulty. The wounded man was taken care of by the police as soon as they could be summoned, and was sent to the Smith Infirmary at New Brighton.

It was then found that his skull had been fractured and it was necessary to remove a part of it before he could be restored to consciousness, Coroner Waitzer, who performed the operation, afterwards took Redmond's ante-mortem statement, for his condition was so low that it was feared he would not live through the day.

brains.

Funeral of Sister Rose Leo.

rived here Sunday to work on the contract labor of Rochester by Billy Gifford. The party returned in time for dinner.

THE MAYOR'S LATEST SLATE. Lots of People Call on Him and Lots of Col. Hill Arrives from the West.

Shose, Belts, Hose, Caps, Shirts, Blazers, &c., 25 per ent, from marked prices, SPALDING, 241 Broadway,

Boodler John Keenan, who is sojourning in Canada, has met with a serious setback in his legal fight with Heman Clark for a share

Manager Matrie certainly has cause to hug him-elf, but there is no reason for his becoming a

Canada Southern .... Open. High. Low. Cles.

New York Markets.

quiet,
PETROLEUM.—Certificates opened at Saturday's closing quotation at 80c. Market was dull, but the quotation advanced to 80% c.

men, but None for the Refuse of Europe. EMPEROR WILLIAM IN DENMARK. King Christian Gives the Kalser a Ware Welcome to Copenhagen.